Listen to single 'Ah'na Hakkeka' now.

The Tunisian techno artist returns to InFiné in January with new EP, Dhakar, marking her first original material since her acclaimed LP, Khonnar back in 2018.

The four-track record is said to take her message back to the dancefloor, with each piece straying away from personal identification and focusing in on the sonic influences of her home region. It follows Deena's Khonnar remix package of earlier this year, which featured edits by M.E.S.H., Karen Gwyer, Ital Tek and Lord Of The Isles.

Revisit our conversation with her earlier this year here, and listen to cut 'Ah'na Hakkeka' below.
