

The four-track 12-inch is out January 17th.

Partager

Deena Abdelwahed has new music coming in January next year.

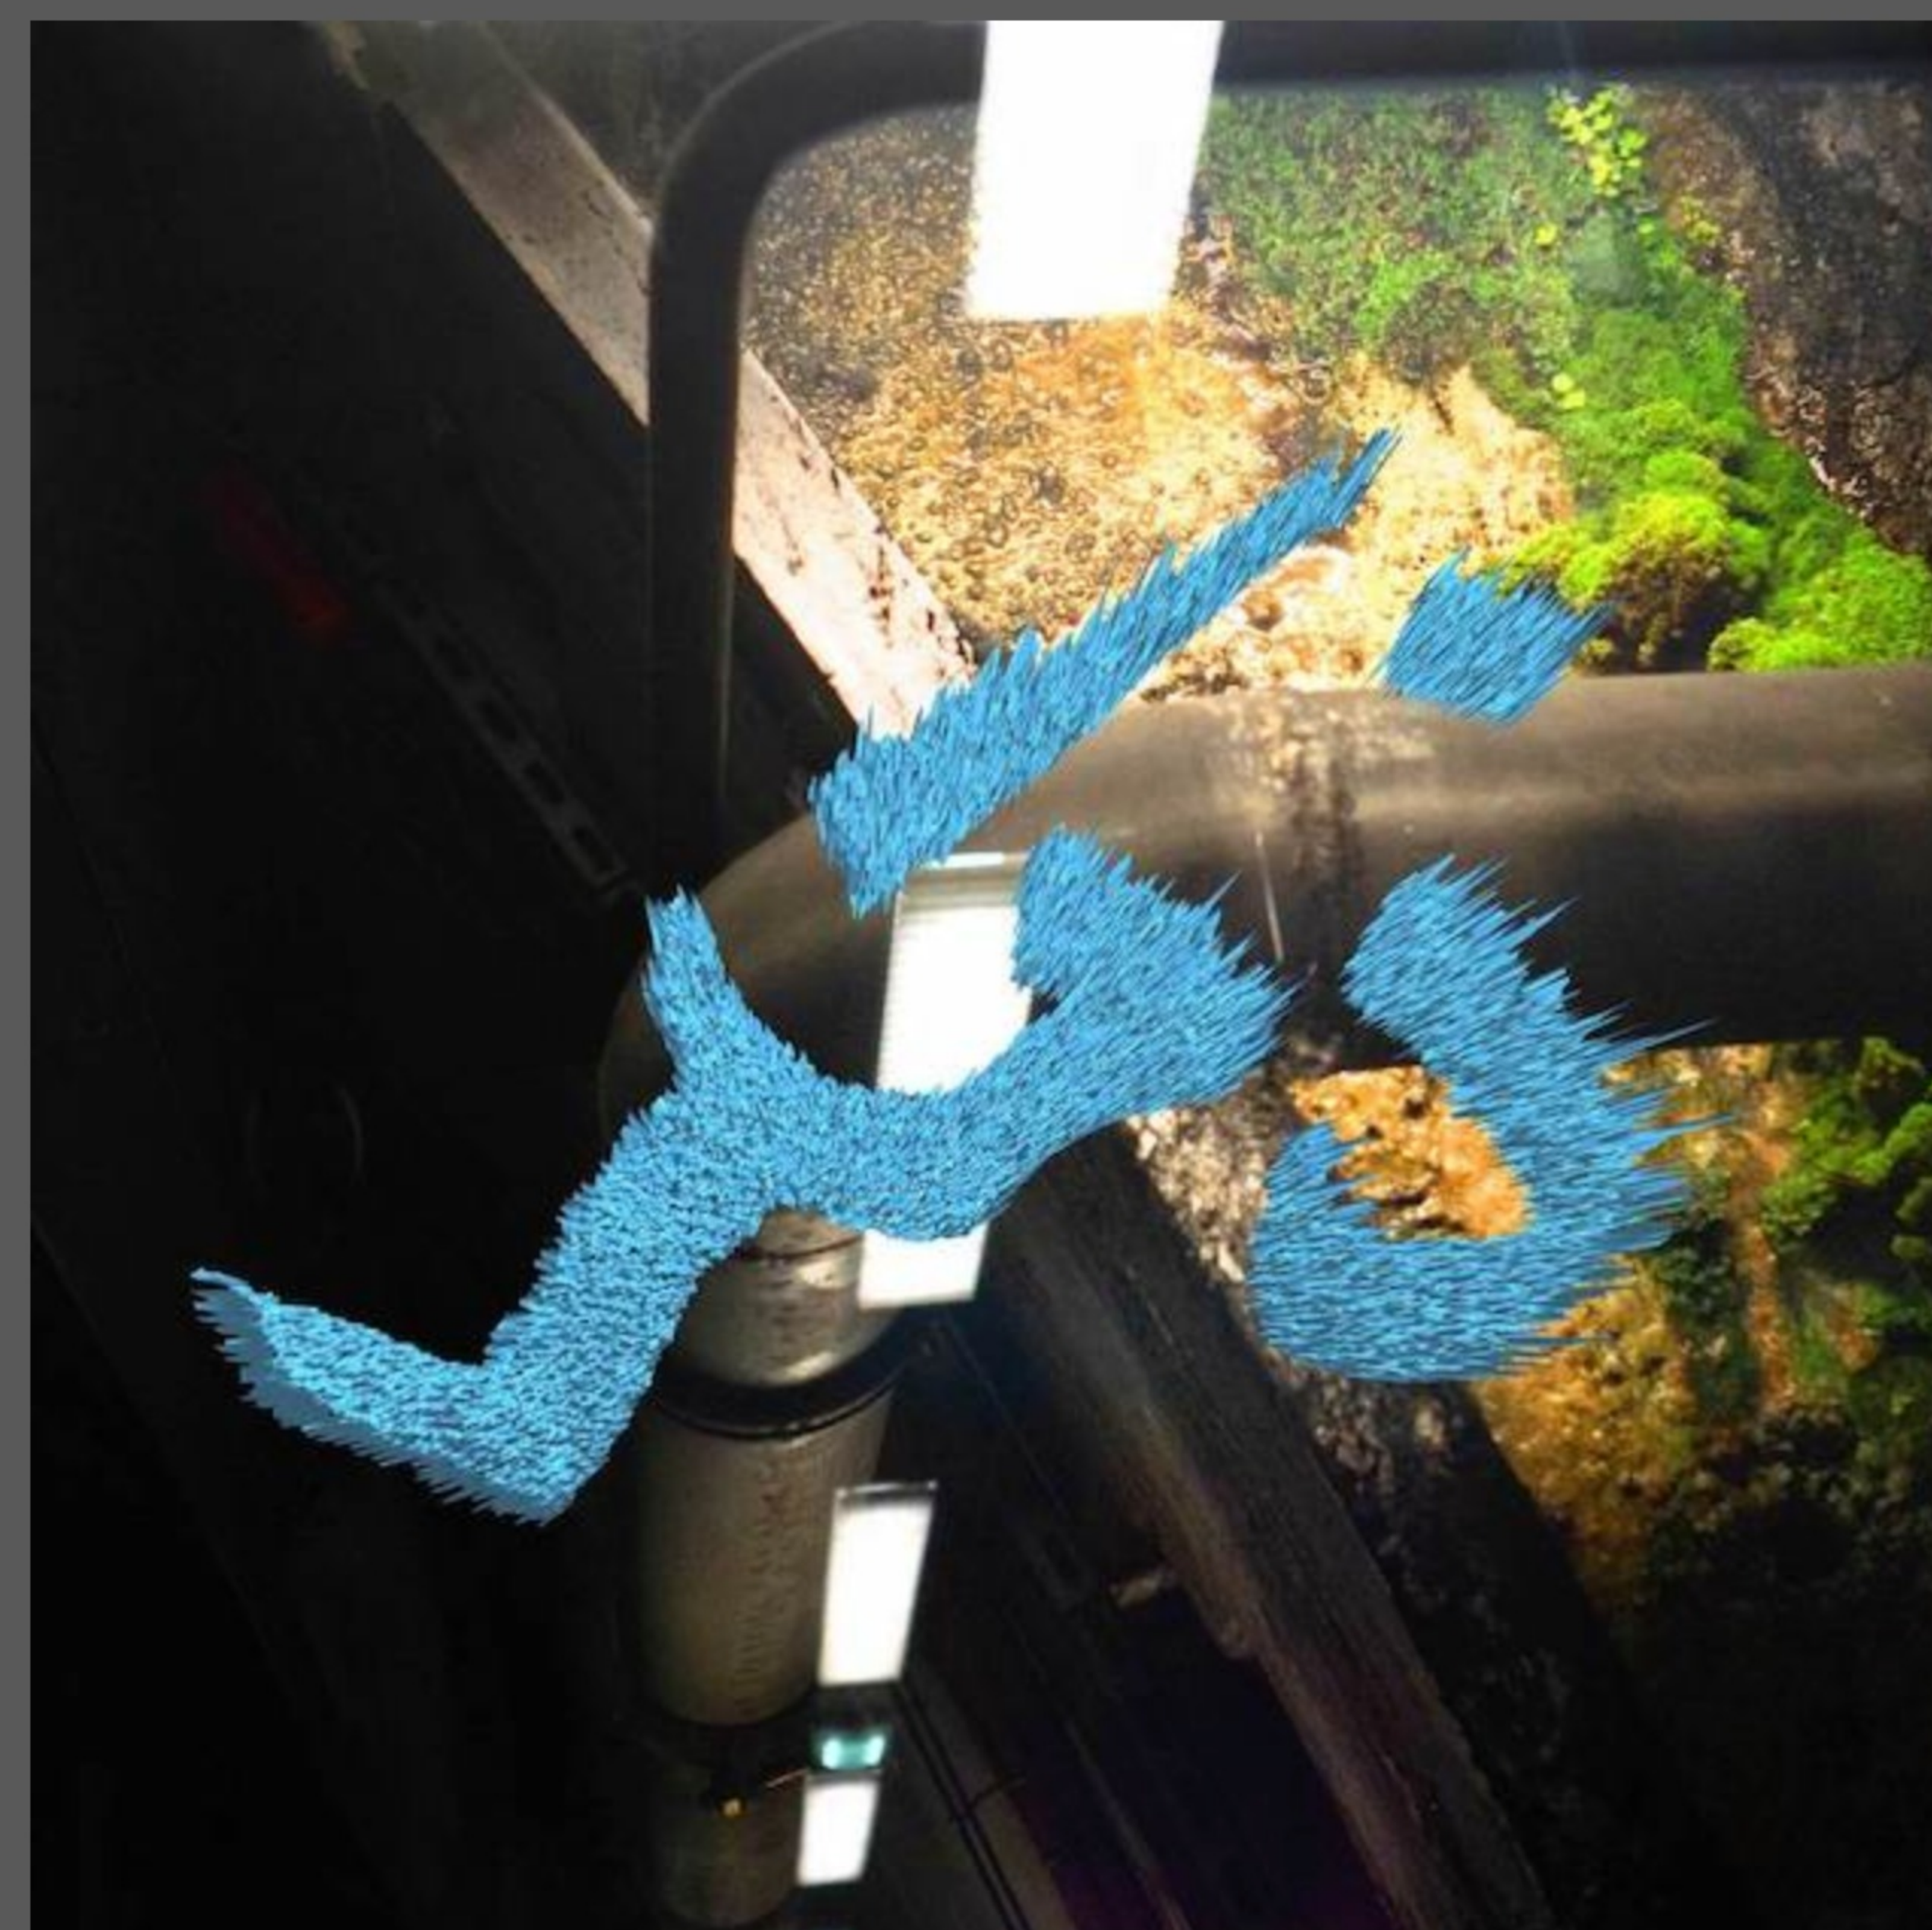

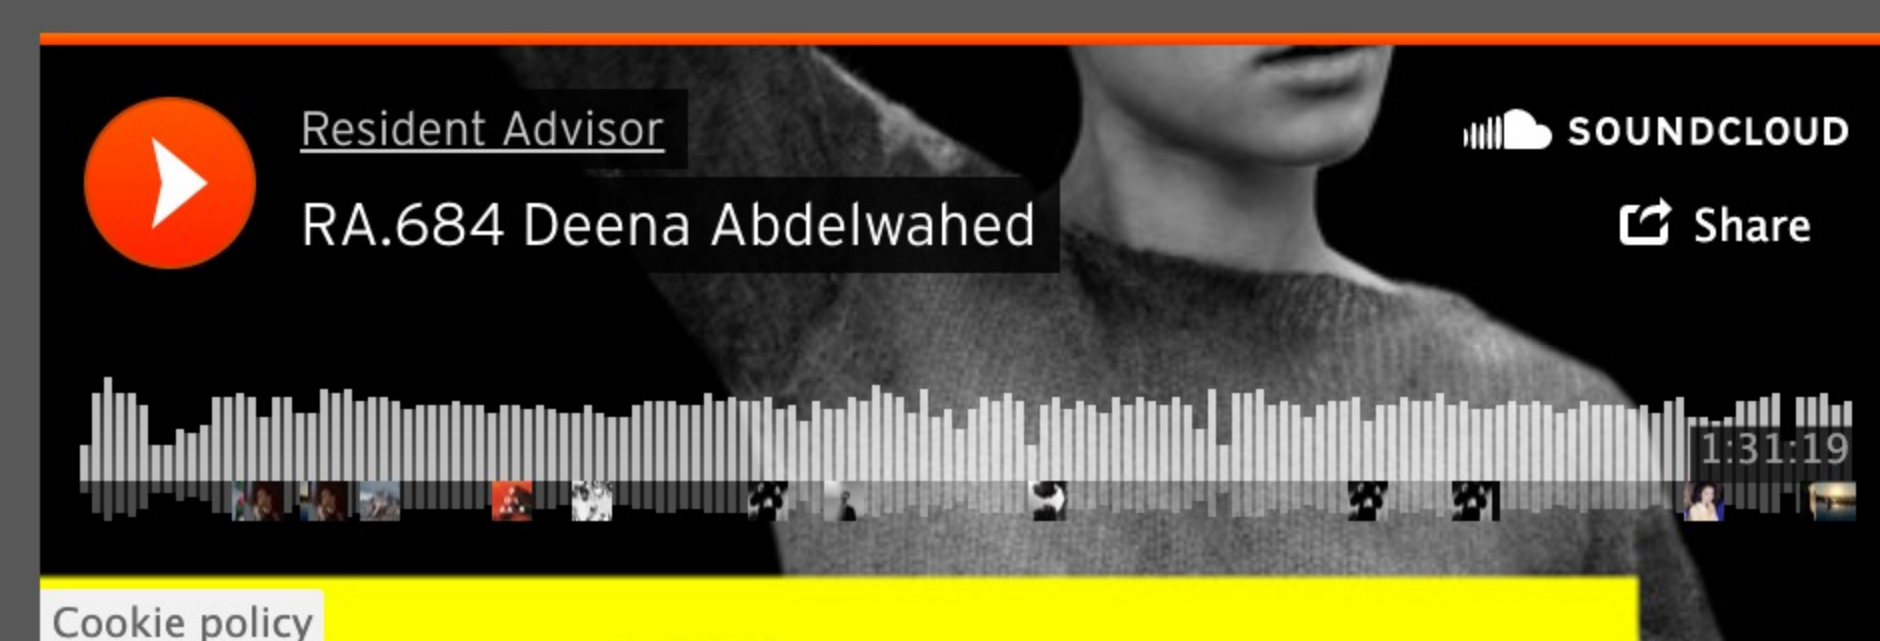

Dhakar, which spans four tracks, will be the Tunisian artist's first original material since last year's RA-recommended album, Khonnar.

The dance floor-focussed EP spans techno, EBM, IDM and dub. It's out on January 17th through French label InFiné, which has been releasing Abdelwahed's music since 2017. The imprint also put out a remix EP for "TAWA," with edits by Karen Gwyer, M.E.S.H and others.

Listen to "Ah'na Hakkeka."

Revisit Deena Abdelwahed's RA Podcast from earlier this year.

Tracklist

01. Lila Fi Tounes
02. Ah'na Hakkeka
03. Insaniyti
04. Zardet Sidi Bagra

InFiné will release Dhakar on January 17th, 2020.

Photo credit: Judas Companion

Label: InFiné