

Mischa Blanos Indoors LP [InFiné]

Mischa Blanos is the exceptionally gifted pianist who makes up Amorf alongside Cristi Cons and Vlad Caia, together known as SIT. His infusion into the trio has brought some soul into the Romanian minimal house sound that has had us buzzing and dancing for many years. He draws his inspirations from classical repertoire, his Slavic roots, and electronic music.

Indoors follows his debut EP, Second Nature, released in June 2018 on InFiné. Blanos conceived all tracks during the Paris Piano Day in March 2019, and the result is seven new pieces that “assert his difference, far from the canons of the current piano stylistic clichés, with glimpses of jazz and unique groove,” the Paris label explains. If you enjoy the piano like we do, then you will most likely concur that Blanos has created another masterpiece here. Bravo!
