

IF2047 – Rone – Parade (12" and digital)

A – Dominik Eulberg remix / B1 – Original / B2 – Blind Digital Citizen remix

Release date : 26/11/2012

PARADE is the stamp of RONE in 2012.

It is primarily a music video directed by Filip Piskorzynski and Natalia Dufraisse, which spread on the web at the speed of light, and all around the world. (to be seen here : <https://vimeo.com/48463907> )

It is secondly a standout the track taken from Rone's second album, "Tohu Bohu", which is based on a enthralling melody twirling around a stunning four-to-the-floor. Equally physical and spiritual.

It's eventually from 26th November 2012 a new EP including some remixes of Dominik Eulberg & Blind Digital Citizen.

Erwan and Dominik Eulberg share in their production unparalleled emotional power, which was already crystallized in the remixes of Diorama released late 2011 on Traum (check Rone's remix of "Der Tanz Der Gluehwurmchen"). In return, Dominik Eulberg turns Parade into the melodic techno gem of 2012!

Their name begins to circulate in Paris. Blind Digital Citizen illuminates the soundscape of Rone's original track with some raw "Kraut" keyboards and with some shifted poetry that leaves the listener speechless.
